

Big Dave

You didn't wear a mask when I was there -
You cannot catch the illness anymore!
No lock down where a spirit's wild and free -
No social-distancing or Tier Four.

You are not gone;
You didn't disappear!
I see you there -
But know that you are here

You're the voice in my mind
That makes me braver;
The twinkling smile
That makes me grin,
You're in the laughter,
After the dirtiest joke!
A bloke who takes the weight
And makes it lighter...

Sing your heart out Barry White:
This brother is a lover and a fighter!".

You are Disco Dave,
The man who dances
Like no one else is watching,
Until everyone joins in!

You're a Petrol-head
A Spin King
A road-bike Iron man,
Who taught the girls to swim;

A Sunday League "leg-end"
A cheeky chappie champion -
The GFG* ...

To me
You are - and always will be
My Great Friend
I know you're here
So this is not the end

*Gentle Friendly Giant
